4th ANNUAL QUAD-COUNTY BUSINESS SUMMIT TO INCLUDE GUEST SPEAKER, DOUG BOUTON, CO-FOUNDER, PRESIDENT AND COO OF HALO TOP CREAMERY

Orange County, VA – Orange County Economic Development and the Quad County Business Summit Planning Committee are pleased to announce this year's Summit will include a Business Success Story Question & Answer session with guest speaker Doug Bouton, Co-Founder, President and COO of Halo Top Creamery. Halo Top was founded in 2011 by Justin Woolverton, who began the company by making ice cream in his own kitchen. Bouton joined Halo Top shortly after as co-founder and the rest is history.

The full 2019 Summit agenda is now available and can be found on the Central Virginia Small Business Development Center's website at <https://www.centralvirginia.org/events/quad-county-business-summit-3/>.

Sponsorship opportunities are still available and are listed on the Summit website. To date, over $3,500 has been raised to award to the winner of the QuadTank Pitch Competition. We would like to graciously thank all of our generous sponsors: Halo Top Creamery, Dominion Energy, Draper Aden Associates, Rappahannock Electric Cooperative, Virginia Community Bank, Partner's 1st Federal Credit Union, Xpress Copy & Graphics, Madison at the Mill, and JB Cakes.

For more information regarding the event, please contact Rose Deal, Project Manager at (540) 672-1238.
